

STELLARIS GROUP

Employee Handbook & HR Policy Reference

Stellaris Group People Operations · FY2025 Edition

Version 7.2 · April 2025 · All Employees · Confidential

1. Welcome to Stellaris Group

Stellaris Group was founded in 1989 with a simple thesis: build businesses that outlast their founders. Today, with ₹18,200 Crore in revenue across six verticals and 31,000+ employees in 55 offices worldwide, that thesis has proven out.

This handbook covers every policy you need to navigate your career at Stellaris Group: leave entitlements, compensation, benefits, reimbursements, and the process for your first 30 days. Keep it bookmarked on the People Portal.

2. Leave Policy (Effective April 2025)

2.1 Casual Leave (CL)

- Entitlement: 12 working days per calendar year (January–December)
- Non-carry-forward: Unused CL lapses on December 31st each year
- Application: Via People Portal, minimum 1 working day prior notice
- Maximum consecutive days: 3 days. More than 3 consecutive days treated as EL or LWP.
- Approval authority: Reporting manager. Auto-approved if no response within 24 hours.

2.2 Sick Leave (SL)

- Entitlement: 10 working days per financial year (April–March)
- Medical certificate: Required for absences exceeding 2 consecutive working days
- Mental health days: Up to 3 SL days per year may be taken via self-declaration (no medical certificate)
- Non-encashable: SL balance resets each April 1st. Cannot be converted to EL.
- Hospital admission: Additional SL beyond entitlement may be granted by CHRO on a case-by-case basis

2.3 Earned Leave (EL)

- Accrual: 1.25 days per completed month of service (15 days per year)
- Carry-forward: Maximum 45 days across financial years
- Annual encashment: Once per year in December, up to 10 days, subject to approval
- Encashment at exit: All accumulated EL (up to 45 days) encashed at last drawn basic salary
- Application notice: Minimum 7 working days prior for absences of 3+ days
